Christmas Pajamas Party

19/12

by Leanna Cheung

On December 19th, 2015, we had our 3rd Annual Christmas breakfast and pajama party at Lions Lap and Leanna's home. As usual, it was a feast! Five dozen eggs were delicately cracked by Lions Alvina and Sophia and then expertly whipped by our guest, Alkie. These eggs were then cooked to perfection by our president Biston! They were the fluffiest scrambled eggs we have had in a while! Lion Kevin handle our waffle-making station with flare, making the most fresh, beautiful and scrumptuous waffles in town! Lion Bonnie brought delicious steamed rice cakes fresh from the bakery! Lion Lap, our brilliant early riser and multi-tasker, woke early and brewed coffee, made bacon, hash brown AND veggies before everyone arrived in their pajamas! Kudos to Lions Bonnie, Kitty and Wendy for the matching Christmas themed pajamas!

We all had a fantastic meal, followed by the much anticipated gift exchange. This year, the theme was "As Seen on TV". We all had a blast watching the infomercials of each present. A random name drawing App was used to determine the order at which the presents were picked. As usual, the person can opt to pick a new present or steal one (the present can only be stolen for a maximum of 3 times). The twist this year was an opportunity for the chance to defend a present from being stolen through a game of Taboo in reverse. The list of taboo descriptions will be read and the first person to guess the word wins the present!

Fun and fellowship was definitely in the air! Everyone left with a belly full of laughs and delicious food, of course. We look forward to next Christmas Pajama Party!

Templeton New Century Curling fundraising by Rey Mui

On December 14th, 2015, Lion Rey attended the Vancouver Templeton New Century Lions Club Annual Fundraiser held at the Richmond Curling Centre. The proceeds for this year went to support the mental health cause and it must have been a fantastic cause because the event was maxed out! Templeton Lions Club managed to sell out all of the spots and Lion Rey was the only Lion from Cathay New Century who got in. The event was super fun and it is a great idea to use Curling for fundraising. One of the most iconic sports of Canada and yet it is relatively obscure when it comes to people actually trying it and playing. It was Lion Rey's first time but definitely won't be his last. Thank you to Templeton New Century Lions Club for introducing this sport to its supporters!

Chinatown Lions New Year Eve Gala by Karen Poon

It is a typical girl's dream to dress up for a ball and with her Prince Charming at a New Year Countdown. Therefore, my sister and I attended the Chinatown New Year's Gala on 31st Dec, 2015 at Four Season Hotel in Downtown Vancouver. In the end, it became a celebration with the big Lion's family. Both my sister and I were invited to dance with the DG Eric Keller. It is such a heart-warming moment to see my parents dancing hand-in-hand the whole night. After the countdown, it was the usual fun line dance to end in a high note of the night!
